Waren- On Saturday, 22.00 pm, „Rick Derman and the Cry“ were live on stage in „Speicher Nr 1“. Derman is a multi-talented lead singer, song writer and guitarist. His program consists of blues, rock and pop songs. Before Rick came to Germany, he already had his first record deal with a company in Los Angeles and toured in England to support his LP. He later worked as a producer and song writer and had the opportunity to play and record with members of the Joe Cocker band. In 1991 he moved to Berlin, staying one year, and returning again in 1995.

„The Cry“ (a.k.a.,„The Glass Band“) is a well known music group in Berlin and its surrounding areas for about five years. The Blues-Rock-Trio consists of Heinz Glass, guitar and vocals, Jamie Scott, bass, and Jacob Peter, drums. Together with Rick Derman they created a pleasant and entertaining mixture of German-American blues-rock.
