

Angels Wear Faces

Chorus

Angels wear faces, painted from traces
That you and I have seen
One day she loves me, next day she hates me
Livin' my life in extremes

And I wonder, what I've been doin' wrong
I'm disappointed, but my feelings are so strong
There's no hurry, we can take our time
There's no reason to run and hide

Repeat Chorus

I could be lovin' you, holdin' you so tight
Instead I'm lonely, deep into the night
Where I'm headed, don't know where I'm bound
Don't wanna spend life on a carousel

Repeat Chorus
