

Limousine

Chorus:

We can all ride in the limousine
There's room in the back and the journey's free
We'll drink champagne, and we'll rock 'till three
An endless party in the land of the free, land of the free

Why does life have to be so complicated?
Pushing my reason to extreme
Why can't it be sooner rather than later?
What does it take to succeed?

Repeat Chorus

I just might need a college education
To get me thru the next decade or two
You know I want to live from my creations
They say I need a very strong debut

Repeat Chorus

Corporate nightmare, mammoth aggravation
The evening news to keep me company
Well I could be in China or Bermuda
Or on a spaceship thru eternity

The taxman's gonna get ya sooner or later
You're lookin' for heaven and no anxiety
Well you can court Lady Luck or just hate her
The Rhinestone Cowboy gives no guarantees

Repeat Chorus

Words & Music by Rick Derman